

Pieces and Patches Quilt Guild
Zoom Meeting
Show and Tell
January 31, 2022

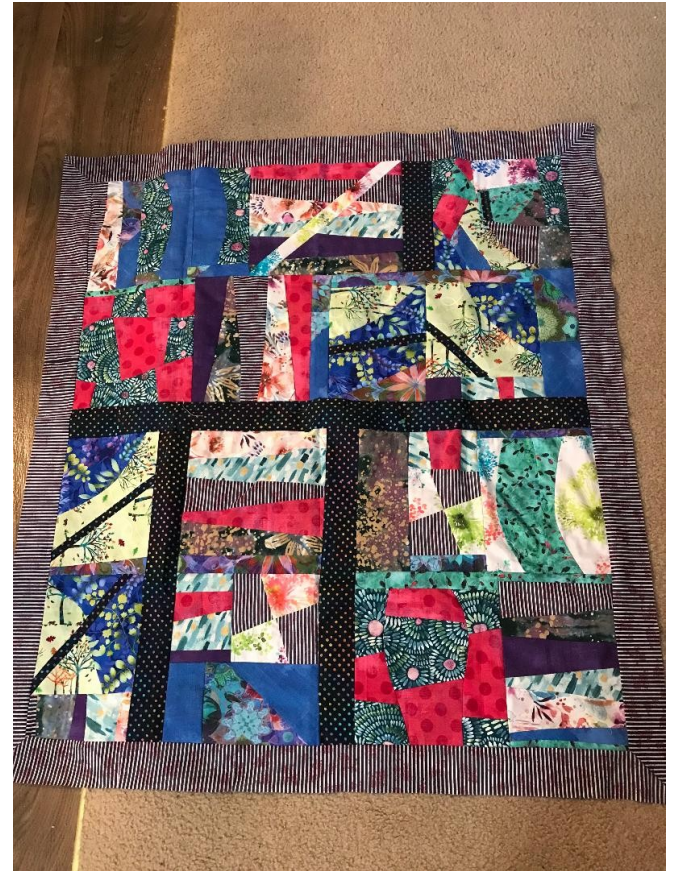

Chris Carothers

- Chris says this current project still needs borders.

Chris Carothers

- This project was from Kathy Schmidt's workshop.

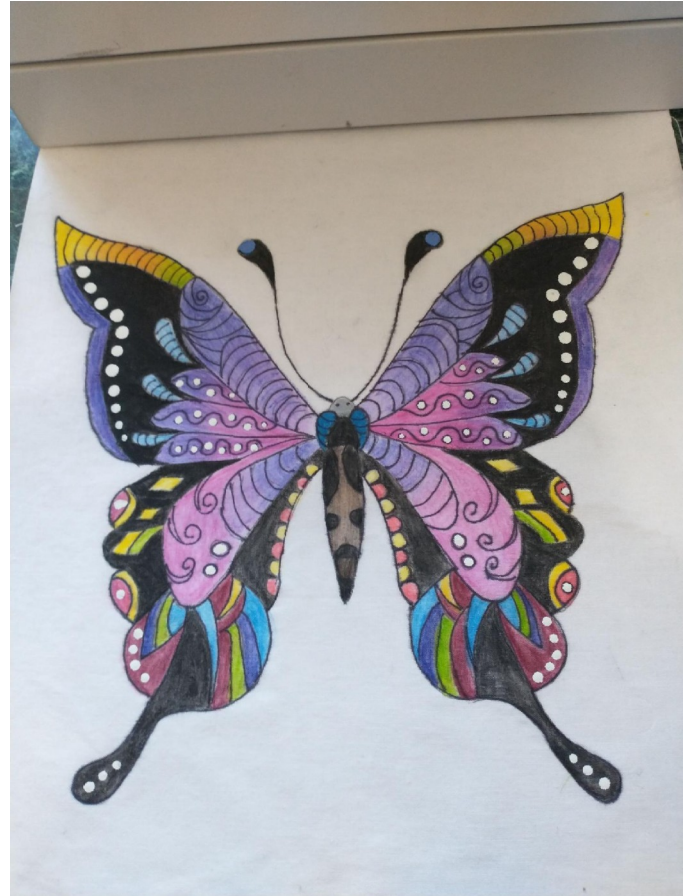

Aggie Straub

Aggie made this lap quilt for one of her daughter's patients

Aggie Straub

This beautiful butterfly was done using the Inktense Pencils at the It's Not Your Mama's Quilting Group meeting

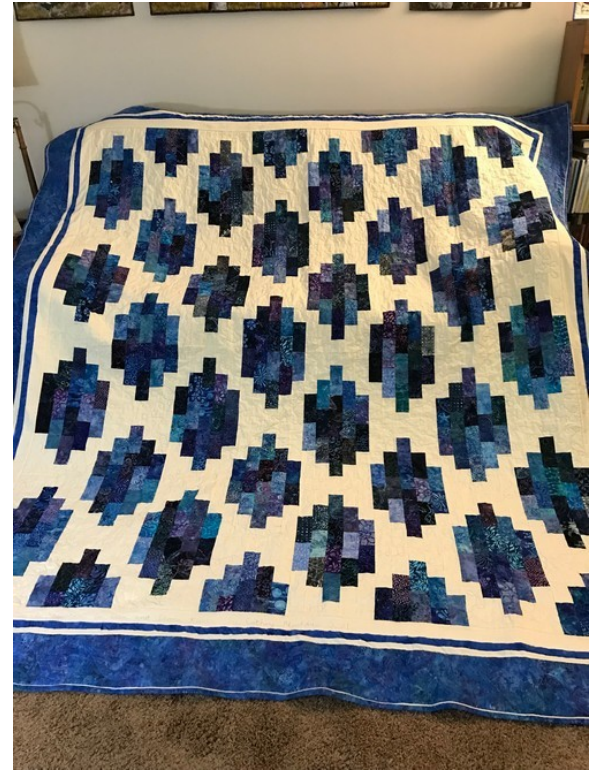

Anna Pedrotte

Anna says she just finished this table topper and it even has hearts On it for Valentine's Day.

Cathey Newhouse

This is a very colorful queen size quilt Cathey made for a friend. Lucky Friend!

Cathey Newhouse

Cathey has been a very busy gal. This is another quilt Cathey made for a friend.

Cathey Newhouse

This is the third quilt that Cathey made for another friend. The blue and green color scheme is even Used in her unique border.

Cathey Newhouse

This the 4th quilt Cathey has recently
Made with a very wonderful adaptation
of

Cathey Newhouse

This is Cathey's completed President's quilt. She thanks all of the members who made an appreciation block for her. Each block is quilted with a different decorative stitch.

Janice Stitt

I made this quilt for my grandson, who is an avid video game player. This pattern is by Quiltoni. I bought the pattern and kit from Toni when she was a guest speaker at our guild several years ago.

Deland Underground railroad Quilt created by Bev Smith and Cindy Fraher

