I finished another UFO.

This is a Kim Diehl pattern from the book Simple Graces. I picked up the unfinished center design somewhere years ago. Finally got the center finished & the borders added, & the quilting done. Now it will hang in my living room.

“Happy Thoughts “
a quilt design I
found on Pinterest.
I used Stacy lest
Hsu fabric line ,
“The Sea and Me”,
and pieces from my stash. This is the second time I have used this
pattern for a baby
quilt and it’s my
new favorite.

Bonnie Hunter
mystery top finished!
I would not have attempted this if I
saw all the pieces it took to create it! But
by doing a little at a time I am so happy
with the finished top!

I have always liked the look of the wedding ring quilt. I made this for my son and his wife. I received a lot of help from a quilting friend, that also quilted it for me.

This one is in remembrance of my brother who loved giraffes, the lilacs for my mom who always had beautiful lilacs, and the deer for my dad, the hunter. I made that one before I knew about points, and squaring up, etc.

I made this for myself when I retired.
