Andrea Niehaus

Here's my latest project in Florida.

Chari Cure

I made reversible aprons for my adorable granddaughters.

Chari Cure

I made 2 of the Rosa supply case from clover and violet.

Anna Pedrotte

I finished two quilts for my twin grandsons to use while sleeping over. One is Thomas the Tank Engine and the other is a fun Octopus with fish panel. I quilted them free motion on my Sweet 16.

I also made some pillows from scraps from a quilt I made for my sister.

Lu Ann Hammond

Placemats for Meals on Wheels. I have 3 more cut out!

Laurie Lightfoot

This is a sampling of the two dozen or so placemats ready to be donated to the Meals on Wheels project. All are made from remnants out of my mother's stash and in some cases pre-quilted fabric was used for the backing and batting.

Anissa Frinkle

This is a Mandalorian helmet. I found an image on Pinterest and used it as a guide. Just shy of 1500 2.5 inch squares.

This is the mini patchwork duffel bag.

Rayette Ruoff

Memory quilts made for grandkids.

A Cabin Christmas, 3-yard Quilt pattern.

Becky Kopicko

I have been working on these McKenna Ryan 12 x 12 appliqué blocks that are mounted on canvas frames. There will be 10 of them when they are all completed and they will hang above the headboard of our bed. I won the bid on these patterns at the silent auction at one of our quilt shows. Side note to Andrea: I'm happy to share the patterns.
