

Pieces and Patches Quilt Guild
Meeting
05/19/2025

Demonstration by Cindy Barnes How to use liquid vinyl

Speaker:
Ellen Cieslack
from Howell, Michigan
She calls herself a scrap quilter

Speaker Ellen Cieslack

Ellen hand pieces and hand quilts most of her quilts. She often uses templates from paperpieces.com. This is the first quilt she made.

Ellen's current project

As they retire from the board,
Rita Parsons, Renee Nelson, Angie Townsend and LuAnn Hammond are thanked for their many hours of donated service to the Guild.

Rita Parsons, our past president, conducts the Guild vote and approval for the 2025 - 2026 Board of Directors

Show & Tell Val Howard

This memory bear was made from my son's santa suit when he was 1 month old. I had to use accenting fabrics because the suit was so small.

Show & Tell Val Howard

I bought this lap size pattern and enlarged it to a queen size quilt for my son. Fabric is from Hobby Lobby

Show & Tell Pattie Rayl

Pattern is Ribbon & from Dear Jane.
I was inspired to make three curtains for my sewing room while working on the Dear Jane project.

Show & Tell Arrisa Frinkle

Tote bag pattern is Open Wide by Annie.
The Tula Pink fabric was in a kit from Sew Lets Be Quilty in Pentwater. The small bag used a By Annie pattern. I experimented with using tape measures just for fun.

Show & Tell

Lu Ann Hammond

I just finished making this portable ironing mat which Dawn Fowler demonstrated at The National Quilt Day workshop.

Show & Tell Chari Cure

The tote bag, purse, coin purse and eye glass case were made with Tula Pink fabric

Show & Tell Cindy Fraher

Over The River and Through The Woods Pattern. The song and book were my favorites as a child.

Show & Tell Anna Gilliland

I got the kit at the Hen House clearance room for $67.

Show & Tell Jill Dale

This Huggable Quilt pattern can be found on Pinterest

Show & Tell Tina Robbins

Quilt Pattern: Country Lines. I made a big boy quilt for my great grandson when he graduated to a big boy bed. He picked out the material.

Show & Tell

Rolinda Tappenden

This quilt was made with leftover fabrics from a block of the month club a few years ago. It is paper pieced and quilted by me.

Show & Tell Sue Vandercook

This a block of the month quilt from the Purple Bobbin. It is made with batiks.

Show & Tell Barb Noble

These flat dolls are made for two friends' 80th birthday party next week.

Show & Tell Heide Dronchi

Quilt Pattern: Prairie Lilys and Lori Holt Fabric.
I made this for a good friend to hang on a wall. It way too big! 😞

Show & Tell
Heide Dronchi
Her Harelson Bag

Show & Tell Rita Parsons

Her Harelson Bag with cork and faux leather. Rita said it was a wonderful workshop. Learned a lot.

Show & Tell

Sheila Vogtmann

The Boxy Tote pattern is big enough to carry a featherweight machine. Fabric from Purple Bobbin. Sheila's comment – Never Again!

Show & Tell Linda Mumby

Linda found this old quilt at a resale shop. She used 2 different patterns to make the coat.

Show & Tell Karen Beers

My own design of a patriotic runner.
using string piecing and embellished with rick rack. I also made a small patriotic wall hanging.

Show & Tell Karen Beers

The Harelson Bag with vinyl and home decorator fabric.
Debi Vanden Heuvel taught this workshop.

Show & Tell Becky Kopicko

This quilt top will be finished in the next two weeks for a wedding gift. I purchased a panel of twenty four 8" blocks and went from there.

Show & Tell Karen Varney

My daughter Taria made this cotton and flannel quilt for me for my 76th birthday.

Show & Tell Dawn Fowler

Dawn's Harelson Bag by Noodlehead was made with Tula Pink fabric. This was a Guild workshop . I like making bags. I would like to make the Oxbow Tote by Noodlehead. Debi Vanden Heuvel was a great teacher. She teaches at the Ann Arbor Sewing Center.

Karri Howe

Pattern: Tula – Light in Dark Places. This was for the Miniatures group challenge at the Guild's last quilt show. I didn't quite get it done so it was at the show in the boutique, but not in the show.

Show & Tell Cynthia Shong

Laundry bag pattern from the Purple Bobbin.
½ yard of Lori Holt fabric for the outside and ½ yard of fabric for the lining.
