Disappearing 9 patch

I used fabrics from my hoarder stash. This quilt started as a 9 patch which I didn't like. I sliced the sides off and flipped them to the opposite sides.

Grandma Grace Fowler sewed her own clothes and used the scraps for quilts. It is fun to pick out the fabric from dresses, tops and aprons she made.

Grandma Grace Fowler's Sunbonnet Sue Variations

I don't remember what machine she had. She passed away several years before I got into vintage machines. My featherweight came from my ex's aunt. It was his grandma's machine. That is what started my machine obsession!
